ATATÜRK SECONDARY SCHOOL NEWSPAPER

Year:1 Number:1 Pozantı

Our school has opened in August, 2014. It has 28 classrooms, a theater saloon, a modern z- library, a technology classroom, a VIP classroom, 2 changing rooms for PE lesson, 800 m2 sport area, Mescids for men and women and a chessroom. We have got 2 managers, 24 teachers and 391 students.

Our school has a significant success. This success has been academical as per this year. However, we want to spread out this success not only in an academical sense but also sporty, cultural and artistic sense. Therefore, we will pay attention to these issues in our 2015-2019 strategic plan. We will increase our works to take place among the successful schools and compete to be one of the most successful ones in all respects in our province-wide, Adana. Also, we are diversifying our works not only to be successful in our province but also country-wide and world-wide.

We have joined all the projects as Atatürk Secondary School. Also we are maintaining to join such projects to transfer our experiments to education. Our school has a young, dynamic and willing staff and there is no need for any branches.

OUR MISSION

To bring our students necessary basic information, ability, behaviour and habits to be a good citizen via technology. To make our students ready to life and further education by educating them in terms of their concern and skills.

OUR VISION

To be a school which represents our country all over the world with the individuals who are educated as self-confident people, and to be a school which is proud of being a part of its partners.

POZANTI AND CHURCHKELA

The churchkela is a famous and delicious dessert in Pozanti. It is a traditional sausage - shaped candy made by repeatedly dipping a long string of nuts in a mixture of flour, sugar and grape molasses. Pozanti people made it generally in autumn when grapes and nuts are harvested. On the other hand preparation of this candy is very enjoyable and it is very yummy.

1 portion of churchkela is 107 gram it has:

286 kcal,
27.6 carbohydrate,
5.2 protein,
16.4 fat,
0.2 fiber,
0 cholesterol,
5.8 sodium,
5.8 potassium,
50.2 calcium,
42.2 vitamin A,
3.4 vitamin C,
1.3 iron.

Here is the recipe of the churchkela:

INGREDIENTS OF CHURCHKELA

3 glasses of molasses
Half kg of meat of walnuts
4 glasses of water
Halfglasses of amyllum
Halfglass of flour
Halfglass of sugar

PREPARATION OF CHURCHKELA

First we put the molasses and water in a pot. Then we take a glass of the mixture and we add flour and amyllum into a container and we shake it but we shouldn't make it dollop. Next we pour the sugar into the boiling molasses water and we add the mixture (flour and amyllum mixture) slowly (we should use a wooden spoon). After then we blend it until it catches the cake cream consistence. After this we take the pan of the stove when it boils and stick the walnuts that is aligned on a quilt thread into the pot and take it out. After then we hang it on a convenient place. After waiting 2 days long, we wind it with a stretch wrap. We can conserve it about 3 or 4 months.

THE HISTORY OF POZANTI

Located at the foothills of the mountains surrounding it, Pozanti is one of the provinces in Adana, Turkey. The town is at the highlands of Cukurova and considered as the major gateway to the Mediterranean coasts.

AKCATEKİR

Akcatekir is in the rural area of Pozanti District. It is 11 kilometers away from Pozanti and 85 kilometers away from Adana. It is situated along the Cakit valley on the Taurus Mountains and its altitude is about 1250 meters.

The earliest settlements in Akcaterkir date back to almost 200 years ago. A village was founded by a sheik from Turkestan but this village was comparatively outside the current area. After the road constructions are completed, the town is established at its current location.

The main contribution of Akcaterkir toeconomy is that it is known as a summerresort (alsoknown as "yayla"). Lots of tourists visit thearea in summer season and its population is over 100.000 during that time period.

BELEMEDİK

Belemedik is a mountain village that is located at west bank of Cakit River in Toros Mountains. The only access to Belemedikis through a road from Pozanti. As a side note, Belemedik is 12 kilometers away from Pozanti and its distance to Adana is 122 kilometers.

At the beginning of the 20th century, the origin of the population in Belemedik was Turkmen. The residents of the village were also called as tahtaci, which refers to the employment in forestry.

In 1907, Belemedik became the center of railroad construction activities led by a very prestigious railway company. The population of the village increased due to the influx of Turkish and German workers.

Also, during the World War I Belemedik was occupied by the French Army. The headquarters of the French army was in Pozanti but Belemedik was used as a military hospital.

Today, the population of the village is only 65. The few people that stay in Belemedik are retired. The residents enjoy the fresh air and scenery but due to the lack of dwellings in the area, Belemedik is not considered as a resort (aka yayla).
